MARK FIEGE

SUE ELLEN CAMPBELL

The Republic of Nature (2012) reframes American history based on the simple but radical premise that nothing in the nation’s past can be considered apart from the natural circumstances in which it occurred.

Mark Fiege is an Associate Professor of History and Director of the Public Lands History Center at Colorado State University.

The Face of the Earth: Natural Landscapes, Science, and Culture (2011) explores how humans have made sense of our planet’s marvelous landscapes and investigates how we live with the great shaping forces of nature—from fire to changing climates and the intricacies of adaptation.

SueEllen Campbell is a Professor of English and Faculty Affiliate at the Public Lands History Center at Colorado State University.

Copies of both books will be available for purchase
