A Conversation with Jennifer Zimdahl Galt, U.S. Ambassador-Designate to Mongolia

Tuesday, July 28, 2015
4-5 pm, Morgan Library Event Hall

Jennifer Zimdahl Galt, a career member of the U.S. Foreign Service, class of Minister Counselor, served as Principal Officer at the U.S. Consulate General in Guangzhou, China, from August 2012 to June 2015. Previously, Ms. Galt served as a Senior Advisor in the Bureau of Public Affairs from 2011 to 2012 and as a Public Affairs Advisor at the U.S. Mission to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Brussels, Belgium from 2010 to 2011. From 2008 to 2010, she served as Deputy Director in the Office of Public Diplomacy in the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs. Ms. Galt also served as a Public Affairs Officer at the U.S. Consulate General in Shanghai, China from 2003 to 2007 and as Assistant Cultural Affairs Officer at the U.S. Embassy in Beijing, China from 2000 to 2003. After joining the Foreign Service in 1988, her early assignments included posts in India, Taiwan, and the former Yugoslavia. Ms. Galt received a B.A. from Colorado College, an M.A. from Johns Hopkins University, and an M.S. from the National Defense University. A Fort Collins native, she is married to the writer Fritz Galt and has two children.

Ms. Galt will talk briefly about her career and international experiences before responding to questions and comments from the audience. This event is free and open to the public. It is hosted by CSU’s International Studies Major and the College of Liberal Arts.

For more information, contact Andrea Williams, Andrea.Williams@colostate.edu.